WHY MADEIRA

Madeira, the most tropical destination in Portugal, offers authentic and transforming experiences. The tropical climate, the Laurissilva forest, the aromas, colours, flowers, tropical fruit and beaches of so many kinds and styles are part of the atmosphere of this paradise in the Atlantic.

The warm and temperate climate all year round makes us enjoy authentic and transforming experiences. The Island of Madeira blossomed to tourism, quickly becoming a must in European tourism. There is space for everything and everyone here, from boating to surfing and golf, hiking, history, culture and good cuisine.

A destination where we can feel the joy of being far away from it all for a while. Come and discover Madeira with the best that the Pestana Hotel Group has to offer – the art of welcoming.
